Run Rabbit

Maxine's sneakers squeaked against the linoleum as she bolted down the hallways of the hospital. The flickering lights and the piercing roar of the monster behind her had her breathing thinned. The mind flayer was controlling people again and somehow it has managed to create a smaller, spider like creature to do it's bidding while it gained strength to being a more physical being. Max's legs were burning as she ran and even though she had gotten a head start, the beast was close behind her, knocking over things in it's path to get to her.

A cord from an abandoned heart monitor tripped her, sending the ginger toppling over. She landed with a skid on her knees, sending burning pain to the area. Before she could scramble back to her feet, the slimy monster rounded the corner and pounced on her. She screamed bloody murder, kicking and punching at the beast but it was no use. The monster roared, sprayed slime onto the trembling girl, two of its appendages locking around her ankles, keeping her in place.

"MIKE! JANE!! HELP!," Max pleaded but the only thing she got back was her own cries echoing back to her.

The monster flipped her onto her stomach, knocking the wind from the girl as well as crushing her round breasts under her. The limbs wrapped tightly around her ankles forced her legs open and as she looked back the monster extended it's huge slimy tongue, gliding the dripping muscle against her clothed pussy. Max blushed a burning red as she felt the wet, sticky heat soak through her cotton summer shorts and soft panties. It was as if she was wearing nothing with how fast the saliva soaked through. The tongue swirled and rubbed against her core as if she was a mere piece of candy, stealing cries and whimpers from the girl. Max clawed at the floor with clammy hands, sweating from the stimulation.

She was horrified and embarrassed but her pussy throbbed and ached for more. More limbs shot out of the creature. Two of them propped up Max's hips while another one snatched her ruined shorts down her thighs. That same limb came back for the hem of her panties, yanking it upward, almost to the base of her head. The thick saliva helped the panties to wedgie her with ease, pulling between her moist pussy lips and plump ass cheeks. The crack of her ass burned while her clit throbbed in suffocation however as Max screamed the monster only went back to lapping at her tiny cunt, more vulnerable than ever. With only a thin material covering her, Max felt every ridge and vein of the giant tongue. It was about the size of her entire body. The tip of it was working against her swollen clit and in little time she was orgasming against her will. Her thighs were weak but the two limbs kept her hips up.

The monster pulled the wedgie with a mass of force, ripping the panties clean off of the girl, pulling a pained shriek from her. She continued to call out to her friends as the monster lapped at her cunt and asshole, tasting her teenage juices. It seemed to fuel the beast, making it hungry for more. Small limbs spread her bald pussy, opening her hole. Max felt the cool air touch her, making her cry more as she realized what was bound to happen. She looked back at the monster again, her bottom lip trembling. The tongue ran up her thigh, and then the other before it penetrated her sweet, tight, cunt. It forced it's within Maxine's hot pink walls with no mercy, ripping pained cries from her throat. Her pussy was pushed to its limit as the tongue explored her insides, lapping at her walls and covering her privates with thick slime.

Her stomach was bulging against the girth to her horror and pain, ruining her body. The Mind Flayer's beast tongue fucked Maxine with a greedy momentum, holding her in place and making the girl endure the cruel punishment. Max squealed as another orgasm was taken from her, then another, and another, until her body felt limp. It drank her juices and basked in her tears. The muscle pulled out of her gaping pussy, eyeing its own saliva running out of the tiny girl. It rolled Max over and licked her lower half clean. She thought for a second it had tired of her but two limbs tightened around her thighs and pushed her knees to her chest, spreading her open again.

A tiny limb shot out and attached to her clit, suctioning to it and sucking at it. Her clit was so sensitive that Max wasn't sure if she was feeling extreme pleasure or blinding pain. The abuse on her bundle of nerves grew worse as the sucking stopped and was replaced with a rapid licking with the tip of the monster's tongue and that didn't stop until Max threw her head back and squirted all over herself and the monster's tongue. She heaved and gasped, lying there as the monster licked her clean. Finally it detached from her and started to slink away, leaving Max alone in the cold hallway of the hospital. The girl reached down, rubbing a hand over her swollen clit and ruined pussy. She cried at the thought of her friends finding her like this, laying in a mess of her own cum.
